The Rose Petal Beach Dorothy

I'm a huge fan of Dorothy Koomson and, despite only discovering her wonderful books last year, she is one of my favourite authors and The Rose Petal Beach is another example of why. Dorothy Koomson's writing is exquisite, seemingly simple and flowing yet powerful, bringing the reader into the very centre of her characters' lives.

The Rose Petal Beach. By: ... I usually love Dorothy Koomson but listening to this as an audio book was not exactly a relaxing experience. I can't say I enjoyed it. Maybe I would have enjoyed it more if I'd read it as a normal book. But listening to it - well, it felt like more doom, gloom and anger than an episode of Eastenders. ...

The Rose Petal Beach (Audiobook) by Dorothy Koomson ...

A few of my petals dance out of my hands, floating away on the breeze, the others spiral downwards onto the foamy water and are immediately carried out on the retreating waves. After she had walked every step of the island, the woman lay down on her beach, her rose petal beach, and slipped into her final sleep.

The Rose Petal Beach by Dorothy Koomson- Free Books Online

When I started reading The Rose Petal Beach by Dorothy Koomson, I was afraid that I wouldn't like it because the author established herself as a writer of chick lit and in general I don't enjoy shallow women's fiction. To my relief, the novel turned out to be a psychological thriller and a more demanding read belonging to the wide world ...
