The New American Militarism is arguably one of the most important books written in our time. As acerbic as it is intellectual, you can't go wrong taking time to read this book and closely following the arguments. It's not light reading, but it is absolutely worthwhile. What I like best about the book is it's last section, which is, quite ...

The New American Militarism: How Americans Are Seduced by War. It is a marriage of militarism and utopian ideology, of unprecedented military might wed to a blind faith in the universality of American values. This mindset, Bacevich warns, invites endless war and the ever-deepening militarization of U.S. policy.
