The warmer weather, longer days and living in a half torn apart house is giving me the itch to spruce up our outdoor spaces. A few years ago, I updated our front porch and back deck, but it's definitely time for a refresh. Our black and white rugs were left out all winter and have seen better days and our wrought iron dining set are about 15 years old and drip rust whenever it rains.

Anonymous said... This is the first tale in Malamud's The Magic Barrel, which always made me think of the phrase, a barrel of monkeys, and truly, there are a gaggle of people in that book, all types and ages and conditions of people, and all of them observed closely, but never narrowly, always with compassion. So I didn't read the story on my screen, but took the book down from my shelf and ...
