The Infernal Mark Doten

"Mark Doten is a tremendous and protean talent. The Infernal—monstrous and resplendent—is an essential novel of the war on terror, which Doten renders plainly as the cacophonous self-made Hell that it plainly is.

The Infernal by Mark Doten - Goodreads

THE INFERNAL By Mark Doten Graywolf, paper, $18. Doten's debut is the most audaciously imaginative political novel I've ever read.

Mark Doten's 'The Infernal,' and More - The New York Times

Review: 'The Infernal,' by Mark Doten. But few of us have a bank of images from the inside, from behind the political curtain. In a way, Mark Doten's turbulent debut novel, "The Infernal," attempts to rip the curtain and show us the absurd production of war through a frenetic cast of voices.

Review: 'The Infernal,' by Mark Doten - StarTribune.com

Mark Doten is the author of The Infernal. He was born in Minnesota and has an MFA from Columbia University. He is senior editor at Soho Press and lives in Brooklyn.

The Infernal | Graywolf Press

Mark Doten's 'The Infernal' is a dark and insane fantasy about the players in the post-9/11 war on terror.

Mark Doten's 'The Infernal' a darkly twisted take on Iraq ...

And of course there's the "author" Mark Doten himself, whom in The Infernal (and outside it) is an editor at a New York City publishing house. I page through the marked-up galley from the airplane.

REVIEW: The Infernal by Mark Doten - Electric Literature

Mark Doten is a brave and audacious spelunker of the most putrid caves of internet-addled capitalism—he's a marvel and a freak of the highest order." —Catherine Lacey "[An] unconventional and darkly satirical mix of memes, Twitter jokes, Q&As, and tightly written stream-of-consciousness passages. . . .

Mark Doten

"Mark Doten," a character in this novel, laments, "My country, our country, it's become a nation of headshakes and rueful smiles, and that is not what we are." I'd posit that any book depicting the adverse effects brought on by a lack of compassion and wisdom is actually a paean about the necessity of compassion and wisdom.
