The Transparent Society Will Technology

The biggest threat to our freedom, Brin warns, is that surveillance technology will be used by too few people, not by too many. Brin maintains that our society has one great knack above all others — one that no other ever managed — that of holding the mighty accountable.

The Transparent Society

He fears that society will overreact to these technologies by restricting the flow of information, frantically enforcing a reign of secrecy. Such measures, he warns, won't really preserve our privacy. Governments, the wealthy, criminals, and the techno-elite will still find ways to watch us.
