Class of . . . terminology, clarification. The designation 'Class of ' refers to the July of the year of leaving of the cohort of students of which you were a member; assuming this to be after 2 years in the Sixth Form.. In other words it is the year you would have left CNS if you had stayed on for 2 years in the Sixth Form.. Hence, if you left school at 16 in 1974, you are part of Class of 1976.

The weblog of Norman Geras. I'd sort of lost sight of this one: the controversy over the name of the Washington Redskins. But it's still going strong. It seems that those defending the team's hanging on to that name are appealing to the alleged fact that 'only one in 10 Native Americans were offended' by it, as well as to the more general consideration of 'history and legacy and tradition'.
