David Ignatius - Wikipedia

Secret agent man. Washington Post journalist Ignatius's previous novel, Body of Lies, was filmed last year by Ridley Scott. The Increment is equally well paced and suspenseful, and the attention to local detail (downtown Tehran is rendered as vividly as top-level CIA briefings) convincing enough to excuse the occasional stereotype.

Review: The Increment by David Ignatius | Books | The Guardian

I really enjoy books by David Ignatius and The Increment is brought to life very well by the narrator Dick Hill. The book is about a disillusioned Iranian nuclear scientist who wants to spill the beans on the Iranian nuclear programme and the CIA agent who has to use SIS resources to deal with the matter.
