A designer is a person who makes designs for objects. A fashion designer designs clothing, a web designer designs web pages and an automobile designer designs automobiles. In each case, the designer works with the help of a technician or engineer who understands deeper level concepts of manufacturing and engineering and the designer themselves is largely confined to work at a surface level.

Last year, I had attended my first Startup Weekend and somehow wound up in a team of four thinkers and a single doer (myself) who can't even code apart from HTML and CSS. You could see other teams were relieved to have such a 'weak' competition. We were like geeks among geeks. How meta. And so we did surveys, wireframes, lots of thinking, and on top of all that, I created the app's interface ...
