To be completely honest, I wasn't expecting to like The Break-Up Artist. The debut novel from Philip Siegel is about a high school girl who breaks up couples in her high school for a mere $100 via PayPal. However, the witty writing and the vibrant characters definitely make this book worth reading. Becca Williamson is a junior at Ashford High.

Good news! I recently made The Revenge Artist available on Kindle Unlimited, where it now joins The Break-Up Artist.. Now, I admit this won't be good news for everyone. While KU will increase the exposure of my books to a larger audience, signing up for the program gives Amazon the exclusive right to sell my ebooks.

Philip Siegel (Author of The Break-Up Artist) - Goodreads

No one said being the Break-Up Artist was easy. I was rather dubious about The Break-Up Artist at first. I do love a cute and fun contemporary occasionally, but many of the ones I have read were rather forgettable and bland. But I was wrong this time. The Break-Up Artist possesses just the right balance of humour, adorableness and emotional ...

Review: The Break-Up Artist by Philip Siegel « YA Midnight ...

The Break-Up Artist caught my attention even before I read it. The mere title had me intrigued and excited. Pre-reading, I already thought that the concept was very clever but only when I immersed myself in this story did I discover exactly how fantastically clever and awesome this book was. The main character, Becca, breaks...

The Break-Up Artist by Philip Siegel - Stay Bookish

The Break-Up Artist by Philip Siegel My rating: 4 of 5 stars The Break Up Artist seemed to be the perfect read for Valentine's Day... I mean, why not! Becca Williamson has a part-time job... It's not your typical job, babysitting or working at a fast food joint, it's breaking up couples at her high school.
