The classic cycle races are the most prestigious one-day professional road cycling races in the international calendar. Some of these events date back to the 19th century. They are normally held at roughly the same time each year. The five most revered races are often described as the cycling monuments. For the 2005 to 2007 seasons, some classics formed part of the UCI ProTour run by the Union ...

Shopping. In the 19th Century, Canal Street was the place to go in New Orleans for shopping, dining, entertainment and socializing. Uptown women and their daughters checked out the latest designs at department stores with legendary names like Krauss', Maison Blanche, Godchaux's, and D.H. Holmes, while men did (and still do) their high-end clothes shopping at Rubenstein's and Meyer the Hatter.
