Shark finning is the act of removing fins from sharks and discarding the rest of the shark. The sharks are often still alive when discarded, but without their fins. Unable to swim effectively, they sink to the bottom of the ocean and die of suffocation or are eaten by other predators. Shark finning at sea enables fishing vessels to increase profitability and increase the number of sharks ...

So he had clearly been having full-on flashbacks to the death as early as two years ago. And had been in the mindset of constantly thinking about the way he'd died for four or five years. That means that a great deal of Gansey's development as a person, a lot of the formation of his personality, was built around this obsession with his own death and the crippling anxiety that came along ...

Following a recipe can be a nerve-racking task, especially when it's hyper-involved. For example, one step can include three different instructions, kind of like this: Add one teaspoon of paprika and two teaspoons of thyme into the pan with minced garlic and onion, swirl, and reduce heat to prevent burning. And hey, sometimes you're just trying to make something quick, like an easy pasta ...
